CORDIALE final conference
In collaboration with Rennes2 University and Brittany region

Managing and understanding landscape change

Venue: Centre Nautique de Moulin Mer - Logonna Daoulas

26th and 27th of June 2013

Day 1 - Wednesday the 26th of June

9.45 - 10.15	Registration and refreshments
10.15 - 10.30	Welcome Daniel Creoff, chairman of PNR Armorique
10.30 - 10.50	CORDIALE in the context of the European Landscape Convention Role of Council of Europe Purpose, history, implementation and evaluation, CORDIALE interests and perspectives. Maguelonne Dejeant-Pons, Head of Division, Policy development, European Landscape Convention, Council of Europe
10.50 - 11.00	Introducing the Cross Channel landscapes characters and challenges Identities, common issues and shared challenges Dr Laurence Le Du-Blayo Senior lecturer in geography, (University of Rennes2 UMR ESO)
11.00 - 11.30	Refreshments
11.30 - 12.00	Main objectives and implementation of CORDIALE Project Introduction to the objectives, processes and deliverables of the project Dave Dixon, SWPLF & CORDIALE

12.00 - 12.20	Regional strategy for landscape monitoring in Brittany: tools, method and sharing opportunities (with CORDIALE and others) Featuring the results of University of Rennes policy research partnership with Regional Council Brittany Thierry Burlot, Vice Chairman of Regional Council Presentation of two products (a regional poster and a web site on landscape dynamics) and a project to set up a regional platform for all landscapes photographic observatories Laurence Le Du Blayo, University of Rennes UMR ESO
12.20 - 12.40	Questions Devon County Council representative
12.40 - 12.45	Introduction for afternoon Devon County Council representative
12.45 - 14.15	Lunch
14.15 - 17.30	Forum Participants are invited to circulate through the exhibitions of the three studios: - Sustainable agriculture (exploring the work done around short supply chains, wood fuel, climate change, farming, marketing for local products, etc) - Mapping (population involvement in landscape changes, photographic observatories, design guides, etc) - Traditional buildings (new teaching materials, energy challenges, local material, communities engagement, etc) + Presentation of the toolkit, individual tools and CORDIALE landscapes map. Opportunity to meet with stakeholders involved in the project and explore CORDIALE materials (reports, videos, brochures, methodologies, training materials, etc). Roundtable discussions 15.00 - 15.30 Sustainable agriculture What kind of sustainable rural economy do we want in protected areas & how can we support it? 15.45 - 16.15 Traditional building How can we build a shared understanding of place to support the management of the cultural landscape? 16.30 - 17.00 Mapping How can we democratize the landscape? How can we build a shared understanding of the landscape?

17.30	Close forum
18.00	Reception. Opening of PNR Armorique landscape exhibition
19.30	Dinner

Day 2 - Thursday the 27th of June

9.30 - 15.30	Study tours - Tour 1: Bocage landscape and farmers initiatives Visits and meetings with stakeholders involved in local food supply chains and woodfuel / bocage management - Tour 2: Landscape character and changes Key view (reading landscape, landscape changes, photographic observatory) and visit a town center (built landscape and buildings heritage, use of local products, development project)
16.00 - 16.30	Closing session - Reflections, perspectives and opportunities Adrian Phillips, Former Director General Countryside Commission UK, former chair IUCN World Commission on Protected Areas
16.30	Close of conference

This conference was organised by the CORDIALE partnership (Devon County Council - Lead partner -, Parc Naturel Regional D'Armorique - host -, Tamar Valley AONB, Plymouth university, North Devon AONB, South West Protected landscape Forum, Chambre d'agriculture du Finistère, CIVAM Finistère, Parc Naturel Régional Des Marais du Cotentin et du Bessin) with the collaboration of the university of Rennes2 and the Brittany region.