(cc) To do all such other things as may further the attainment of the objects of the Group or any of them.

PROVIDED THAT:

(i) In case the Group shall take or hold any property which may be subject to any trusts, the Group shall only deal with or invest the same in such manner as allowed by law, having regard to such trusts.

(ii) In case the Group shall take or hold any property subject to the jurisdiction of the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales the Group shall not sell, mortgage, charge or lease the same without such authority approval or consent as may be required by law, and as regards any such property the Board of the Group shall be chargeable for such property as may come into their hands, and shall be answerable and accountable for their own acts, receipts, neglects and defaults and for the due administration of such property in the same manner and to the same extent as they would have been answerable and accountable if no incorporation had been effected, and the incorporation of the Group shall not diminish or impair any control or authority exercisable by the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice or the Charity Commissioners over the Board of the Group, but as regards any such property they shall be subject, jointly and separately, to such control or authority as if the Group were not incorporated.

5. THE INCOME AND PROPERTY OF THE GROUP shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in the Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to members of the Group and no member of the Board of the Group shall be appointed to any office of the Group paid by salary or fees or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Group. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Group:-
of reasonable and proper remuneration (including without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing any benefits of a nature customarily provided to employees) to any member, officer or servant of the Group (not being a Director) for any services rendered to the Group;

(b) of interest on money lent to the Group by any member of the Group or of the Board of the Group at a rate per annum not exceeding the normal market rate at the time when the money was lent;

(c) of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Group or of the Board of the Group;

(d) of fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to a company of which a member of the Board of the Group may be a member holding not more than 1/100th part of the capital of that company;

(e) to any member of the Board of the Group of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses.

6. TRUE ACCOUNTS shall be kept of the sums of money received and expended by the Group and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Group, and subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same which may be imposed in accordance with the regulations contained in the Group's Articles of Association for the time being in force, such accounts shall be open to the inspection of the members. Once at least in every year, the accounts of the Group shall be examined and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.

7. NO ADDITION, ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT shall be made to the provisions of the Memorandum or Articles of Association for the time being in force unless the same shall have been previously submitted to and approved by the Charity Commissioners.

8. IF A LICENCE pursuant to Section 19 (1) of the Companies Act 1948 is granted to the Group, no addition, alteration or amendment shall be made to the provisions of the Memorandum or Articles of Association for the time being in force unless the same shall have been previously submitted to and approved by the Department of Trade.

9. THE LIABILITY of the members is limited.

10. EVERY MEMBER OF THE GROUP undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Group in the event of the same being wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Group contracted before he ceased to be a member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding One Pound.
11. IF UPON THE WINDING UP OR DISSOLUTION OF THE GROUP there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not except as hereinafter provided be paid to or distributed among the members of the Group but shall be given or transferred to some charitable institution or institutions (whether or not the same shall be a member or members of the Group) having objects similar to the objects of the Group, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Group under or by virtue of Clause 4 hereof, such institution or institutions to be determined by the members of the Group at or before the time of dissolution, provided always that where any institution determined as aforesaid shall also be a member of the Group such determination shall not become valid and effective and no such payment or distribution as aforesaid shall be made to such institution pursuant thereto unless and until the same shall be approved by the Charity Commissioners, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to the foregoing provisions of the Articles then any property of the Group which shall otherwise remain undistributed shall be paid or applied to or for some charitable object.
WE, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed, are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Association.
